An Introduction

• States the reason for the topic
• Tells what will be explained
• Gives an overview or brief summary
• Creates curiosity or interest in the topic
A Conclusion

Restates the:

• Purpose for the writing.
  Use a wrap-up sentence that begins with a connecting word.

• Explanation or support ideas.

And ends with a final personal sentence that expresses a question, recommendation, or wish.